For whatever it may or may not be worth, I have a long letter from the young friend who I'd asked to check the Houston records on Waif. These are public records. They would not let him see them. They would not talk about them. Finally, after long effort, he says, they told him only that she had been arrested on two felony charges. When I have time I'll inventory my small supply of 3M paper. If I have enough, I'll send you a copy because of the account of Garrison and the trial, part of which he took in....3cl OCT 1 197 mailing this a.m....considering total silence, I let the chapter on Nixon's Gestapo run as I write. It is a short book in which I'll try to interest Inge Feltrinelli. HW 10/1/73